

Food Truck Vendor Policy

Revised 12/02/2019

1. The food truck vendor must be a member of GOBA, the fee is $75.
2. The food truck vendor must pay $50 per month for a vendor's license. The food truck vendor license can be obtained at Oakland City Hall.
3. The food truck vendor can only park on East Liberty Street or in the Town Parking Lot in one of the spaces designated on the map. The food truck vendors are not permitted anywhere else unless it is an event and special permission is granted by GOBA.
4. The food truck vendor cannot be in the Town Parking lot on Wednesdays or Saturdays May 1-November 1.
5. A food truck vendor can be in a private parking lot with the owner's permission.
6. Different rules may apply for street festivals/events, please contact Nicole McCullough at mainstreetgoba@gmail.com to be included in a specific event or have questions.
7. If food truck vendors are interested in being at Broadford Park, please contact Gwen Evans at 301-334-2691.

If you, the food truck vendor, do not obey these rules and regulations, your permit will be pulled immediately without a refund. You will have to make an appeal to GOBA if you wish to obtain a permit in the future.

I have read and understand the rules stated above and will obey them accordingly. I have also received a copy of the maps showing where vendors are allowed to park and agree to stay in those locations only.
